ORDER DISALLOWING EXEMPTIONS

The Trustee, John C. McLemore, has filed an objection to the Debtor's valuations of his assets on Schedule A/B and has objected to the exemptions claimed by the Debtor on Schedule C. The Trustee has indicated he intends to take an independent inventory of the Debtor's assets and have an independent valuation prepared.

The Debtor, Debtor's counsel, and the U.S. Trustee were each mailed a copy of the Trustee's Objection and given 21 days in which to respond. No responses have been received.

WHEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED Debtor's valuations of assets listed on Schedule A/B attached to his voluntary petition in bankruptcy are DISALLOWED.

It is further ORDERED the exemptions claimed on Schedule C are DISALLOWED.

The Trustee may proceed with the taking of an independent inventory of the Debtor's assets and the preparation of an independent valuation. When the inventory and valuation are complete the Debtor may submit an amended Schedule C claiming exemptions based on the Trustee's valuations. Should there be disagreements regarding asset values between the Debtor and the Trustee, they can be resolved by the filing of a motion and further order of this Court.
